JOINT SET OF AGREED JURY INSTRUCTIONS

Dept.: Courtroom 10, 19th Floor
Judge: Hon. Susan Illston

Trial Date: March 8, 2010

1.1C DUTY OF JURY

Members of the Jury: Now that you have heard all of the evidence and the arguments of the attorneys, it is my duty to instruct you as to the law of the case.

A copy of these instructions will be sent with you to the jury room when you deliberate.

You must not infer from these instructions or from anything I may say or do as indicating that I have an opinion regarding the evidence or what your verdict should be.

It is your duty to find the facts from all the evidence in the case. To those facts you will apply the law as I give it to you. You must follow the law as I give it to you whether you agree with it or not. And you must not be influenced by any personal likes or dislikes, opinions, prejudices, or sympathy. That means that you must decide the case solely on the evidence before you. You will recall that you took an oath to do so.

In following my instructions, you must follow all of them and not single out some and ignore others; they are all important.

3 Members of the Jury:

4 You are now the jury in this case, and I want to take a few minutes to tell you something
5 about your duties as jurors and to give you some instructions of the Court concerning the law
6 applicable to this case.

7 It is your duty as jurors to follow the law as I shall state it to you, and to apply that law to the 8 facts as you find them from the evidence in the case. The evidence will consist of the testimony of 9 witnesses, documents, and other things received into evidence as exhibits and any facts on which the 10 lawyers agree or which I may instruct you to accept. You are not to single out one instruction alone
11 as stating the law, but must consider the instructions as a whole. Neither are you to take anything I
12 may say or do during the trial as indicating what I think the evidence or what your verdict should be.

1 DUTY TO FOLLOW INSTRUCTIONS

2
3 Regardless of any opinion you may have as to what the law is or ought to be, it would be a
4 violation of your sworn duty to base a verdict upon any view of the law other than that given in the
5 instructions of the Court, just as it would also be a violation of your sworn duty, as judges of the 6 facts, to base a verdict upon anything other than the evidence in the case.

7 In deciding the facts of this case you must not be swayed by bias or prejudice or favor as to
8 any party. Our system of law does not permit jurors to be governed by prejudice or sympathy or 9 public opinion. Both the parties and the public expect that you will carefully and impartially consider
10 all of the evidence in the case, follow the law as stated by the Court, and reach a just verdict
11 regardless of the consequences.

12 This case should be considered and decided by you as an action between the persons of equal
13 standing in the community, and holding the same or similar stations in life. A corporation is entitled
14 to the same fair trial at your hands as is a private individual. All persons, including corporations,
15 partnerships, unincorporated associations, and other organizations, stand equal before the law, and 16 are to be dealt with as equals in a court of justice.

VERDICT FORMS

Upon retiring to the jury room you should first select one of your number to act as your foreman or forewoman who will preside over your deliberations and will be your spokesperson here in court. A form of verdict has been prepared for your convenience. (explanation of verdict form)

You will take the verdict form to the jury room and when you have reached unanimous agreement as to your verdict, you will have your foreman fill it in, date and sign it, and then return to the courtroom.

If, during your deliberations, you should desire to communicate with the Court, please reduce your message or question to writing signed by the foreman or forewoman, and pass the note to the marshal who will bring it to my attention. I will then respond as promptly as possible, either in writing or by having you returned to the courtroom so that I can address you orally. I caution you, however, with regard to any message or question you might send, that you should never state or specify your numerical division at the time.

1.10 RULING ON OBJECTIONS

There are rules of evidence that control what can be received into evidence. When a lawyer asks a question or offers an exhibit into evidence and a lawyer on the other side thinks that it is not permitted by the rules of evidence, that lawyer may object. If I overrule the objection, the question may be answered or the exhibit received. If I sustain the objection, the question cannot be answered, and the exhibit cannot be received. Whenever I sustain an objection to a question, you must ignore the question and must not guess what the answer might have been.

Sometimes I may order that evidence be stricken from the record and that you disregard or ignore the evidence. That means that when you are deciding the case, you must not consider the evidence that I told you to disregard.

6 The plaintiffs will then present evidence, and counsel for the defendants may cross-examine.

2
3 In reaching your verdict, you may consider only the testimony and exhibits received into
4 evidence. Certain things are not evidence, and you may not consider them in deciding what the facts
5 are. I will list them for you:

6 1. Arguments and statements by lawyers are not evidence. The lawyers are not witnesses.
7 What they have said in their opening statements, [will say in their] closing arguments, and at other
8 times is intended to help you interpret the evidence, but it is not evidence. If the facts as you
9 remember them differ from the way the lawyers have stated them, your memory of them controls.

10 2. Questions and objections by lawyers are not evidence. Attorneys have a duty to their 11 clients to object when they believe a question is improper under the rules of evidence. You should 12 not be influenced by the objection or by the court's ruling on it.

13 3. Testimony that has been excluded or stricken, or that you have been instructed to 14 disregard, is not evidence and must not be considered. In addition sometimes testimony and exhibits
15 are received only for a limited purpose; when I [give] [have given] a limiting instruction, you must 16 follow it.

17 4. Anything you may have seen or heard when the court was not in session is not evidence.
18 You are to decide the case solely on the evidence received at the trial.

1.9 DIRECT AND CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE

Evidence may be direct or circumstantial. Direct evidence is direct proof of a fact, such as testimony by a witness about what that witness personally saw or heard or did. Circumstantial evidence is proof of one or more facts from which you could find another fact. You should consider both kinds of evidence. The law makes no distinction between the weight to be given to either direct or circumstantial evidence. It is for you to decide how much weight to give to any evidence.

1.11 CREDIBILITY OF WITNESSES

In deciding the facts in this case, you may have to decide which testimony to believe and which testimony not to believe. You may believe everything a witness says, or part of it, or none of it. Proof of a fact does not necessarily depend on the number of witnesses who testify about it.

In considering the testimony of any witness, you may take into account:

1. the opportunity and ability of the witness to see or hear or know the things testified to;
 2. the witness's memory;
 3. the witness's manner while testifying;
 4. the witness's interest in the outcome of the case and any bias or prejudice;
 5. whether other evidence contradicted the witness's testimony;
 6. the reasonableness of the witness's testimony in light of all the evidence; and
 7. any other factors that bear on believability.

The weight of the evidence as to a fact does not necessarily depend on the number of witnesses who testify about it.

1 1.12 CONDUCT OF THE JURY

2

3 I will now say a few words about your conduct as jurors.

4 First, keep an open mind throughout the trial, and do not decide what the verdict should be
5 until you and your fellow jurors have completed your deliberations at the end of the case.

6 Second, because you must decide this case based only on the evidence received in the case
7 and on my instructions as to the law that applies, you must not be exposed to any other information
8 about the case or to the issues it involves during the course of your jury duty. Thus, until the end of 9 the case or unless I tell you otherwise:

10 Do not communicate with anyone in any way and do not let anyone else communicate with 11 you in any way about the merits of the case or anything to do with it. This includes discussing the 12 case in person, in writing, by phone or electronic means, via e-mail, text messaging, or any Internet
13 chat room, blog, Web site or other feature. This applies to communicating with your fellow jurors
14 until I give you the case for deliberation, and it applies to communicating with everyone else
15 including your family members, your employer, and the people involved in the trial, although you
16 may notify your family and your employer that you have been seated as a juror in the case. But, if 17 you are asked or approached in any way about your jury service or anything about this case, you must
18 respond that you have been ordered not to discuss the matter and to report the contact to the court.

19 Because you will receive all the evidence and legal instruction you properly may consider to 20 return a verdict: do not read, watch, or listen to any news or media accounts or commentary about
21 the case or anything to do with it; do not do any research, such as consulting dictionaries, searching
22 the Internet or using other reference materials; and do not make any investigation or in any other way
23 try to learn about the case on your own.

The law requires these restrictions to ensure the parties have a fair trial based on the same evidence that each party has had an opportunity to address. A juror who violates these restrictions jeopardizes the fairness of these proceedings[, and a mistrial could result that would require the entire trial process to start over]. If any juror is exposed to any outside information, please notify the court immediately.

3.1 DUTY TO DELIBERATE

When you begin your deliberations, you should elect one member of the jury as your presiding juror. That person will preside over the deliberations and speak for you here in court.

You will then discuss the case with your fellow jurors to reach agreement if you can do so. Your verdict must be unanimous.

Each of you must decide the case for yourself, but you should do so only after you have considered all of the evidence, discussed it fully with the other jurors, and listened to the views of your fellow jurors.

Do not hesitate to change your opinion if the discussion persuades you that you should. Do not come to a decision simply because other jurors think it is right.

It is important that you attempt to reach a unanimous verdict but, of course, only if each of you can do so after having made your own conscientious decision. Do not change an honest belief about the weight and effect of the evidence simply to reach a verdict.
